Martin is a former Inspector of Taxes who qualified as a Chartered Management Accountant, coming 1st in the world in his finals. He is a professionally qualified Tax Consultant and a Fellow of both the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and the Association of International Accountants. He holds an MBA from Oxford Brookes University and is a Member of the Chartered Management Institute. He has held senior management positions in the Department of Justice and KPMG and has lectured on professional accountancy programmes for the last 14 years, during which time he has taught numerous prize-winners. He specialises in business strategy, performance measurement, taxation, risk management and corporate governance. His focus in teaching is to provide coverage of key syllabus areas but also to show the relevance of these topics to current business issues. Martin brings his extensive work and academic experience to bear in explaining difficult concepts and bringing the subject to life.
