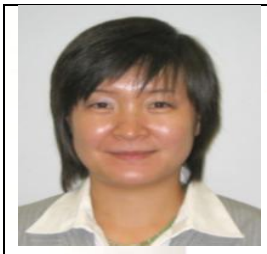
AccountancySchool.ie :

An opportunity to meet fellow ACCA students and qualified ACCA members who have been ACCA students like yourself and managed to come out the other side as ACCA members. We will also be joined by some of the leading ACCA lecturers in Ireland, Julie Hawkins, Liam Doran and Dave O'Donoghue who will give their insights into how to prepare for the ACCA exams and will take any queries you have on their subjects.

Presenters on the evening will include

Julie Hawkins

My Name is Julie Hawkins and I have been running taxation courses for ACCA students since 1991. For over twenty years I have consistently achieved pass rates over the national average and over 73 placing's at 1st, 2nd and 3rd in Ireland. In June 2012 one of my students Sinead Buckley came first in the world in paper F6.
I am 100% committed to ensuring that my students pass their exams first time and also learn practically about tax which they will use personally and in their future careers.



Yan Barry FCCA

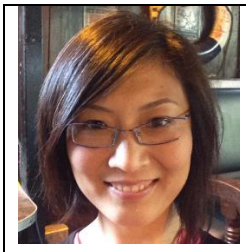
Yan is from China BenXi City. She came to Ireland in 2002. She decided to start her ACCA studies in 2005. She graduated from DBS in 2008 and achieved a first-class honour degree in Accounting and Finance. She joined PwC as an intern in 2008 for 3.5 years. She joined the accountancy practice firm FHM partnership in 2013. She also has experience in the Public sector – Irish Rail and Finance Services sector – MUFG Fund services Ltd.

She studied for all of her ACCA exams at AccountancySchool.ie..

Yan is currently working in Linesight, in charge of APAC business units. This role reports to the Board of directors on each business unit; provides essential financial reporting and guidance for business decision.

Yan is a member of the ACCA Leinster committee since 2016 and she is also a Finance Director (on volunteer basis) of a Charity organisation – Catholic Housing Association Society.

Yan will talk about the her story – her ACCA journey, her time in Accountancy School in 2012 and involvement with the ACCA committee and how important it is to create a strong network in Dublin and further afield.



Hui Cassidy ACCA

Hui is from Dalian China. She came to Ireland in 2001 and decided to start her ACCA studies. Hui's early career included working at Novell Ireland shared service centre as accounts payable analyst and she studied for most of her ACCA exams at AccountancySchool.ie

Hui now works at Microfocus Ireland where she is EMEA/ APJ AP manager and project SME for P2P

Hui will talk about the challenges facing all ACCA students and in particular the challenges facing students where English is not their mother tongue. She will give some insights into how she studied for the exams.

Liam Doran FCCA, MBS (Finance)

Liam is a Director at AccountancySchool.ie. He specialises in the areas of Financial Accounting and Financial Management for ACCA, CPA, CIMA and ACA. He is an immensely confident and popular lecturer. Liam has had students placed first in the World in P2 and numerous national and international prize-winners at P2 and P4.

Dave O'Donoghue FCCA, MSc, DipIFR

Dave is the managing director of AccountancySchool.ie. Dave will talk about the changes to the ACCA exams over the last few years and the changes coming in September 2018. Dave is a member of the ACCA Ireland committee and he is also the Irish representative on the ACCA Global Education Forum.
